Stake out

The wait is over, my carnivorous friends. Kevin Rathbun Steak opens May 30. Yes, culinary juggernaut Kevin Rathbun will finally unveil his 180-seat Johnson Studio-designed homage to all things beef. Nestled in Inman Park, the restaurant rounds out the chef's trifecta of eateries. His eponymous restaurant gave us the "second mortgage payment" nomenclature to describe the mind-blowing and wallet-busting gastronomic offerings. Next, Krog Bar rolled out Mediterranean-inspired tapas served in a tricked-out hipster space no larger than a fishing shack and located on the edge of a parking lot. Now, the stakes, so to speak, are higher. To make a reservation, visit 404-524-5600 or visit www.kevinrathbunsteak.com.
